

Ybor City has more gangland haunts and hangouts than any other part of the city, and appropriately so, since it was where the bolita syndicate started and ran their operations for most of the early years of Tampa's history.

Scott M. Deitche, author of 5 books on the mob will lead an hour and a half long jaunt through Tampa's Mafia history. The tour will take you to old gambling palaces, street corners and alleys where some mobsters met their demise, and restaurants where wise guys like famed boss Santo Trafficante Jr. held court.

Join us for this one-of-a-kind walk through Tampa's most storied neighborhood. They guarantee you'll never look at Ybor City the same way again.

TOUR LIMITED TO 40 PEOPLE.
