

WEBSTER FLEA MARKET

Welcome to the Sumter County Farmers Market!
Established and chartered in 1937 by local Farmers to sell vegetables and cattle. Located in the heart of Florida ...

We're the oldest and largest flea market in Florida and we are listed under the Top Ten Tourist Attractions in the State.

The Flea market covers approximately 40 acres with about 2,000 vendors with crafts, antiques, jewelry, clothing, leather goods, tools, birds, and oh yes ... we still have "junk" too. We now have an antique mall with over 60 inside stalls. Including a beer garden with two more concessions inside

Many of the founders of the Market still sell fresh produce grown on local family farms in the expansive new vegetable building.
So make sure to visit!
