

COME EXPERIENCE A LITTLE BIT OF THE OLD WORLD IN THE NEW WORLD

We will start our day on a fun cruise on the Anclote River, aboard the St. Nicholas Boat Line. Our Captain relates the history of the area sponge diving industry, providing a hands-on display of the various types of sponges and their uses.

The highlight of the tour is watching a sponge diver in a traditional inflated sponge diving suit descend from the boat into the river. You can watch as he moves quickly across the river floor. He harvests a live sponge and returns with it to the boat.

There will be time after our demonstration for shopping and lunch (oyo) in the historic riverfront town of Tarpon Springs, which is lined with gift shops that carry everything from souvenirs to home goods, natural sponges to olive oil soap. Wander a few blocks south and you will find several antiques shops on Tarpon Avenue.

Authentic Greek restaurants, including Mama's Greek Cuisine, Hellas and Mykonos.
