

A Las Vegas headliner for the past 14 years, after winning on America's Got Talent...an ongoing nationwide tour which is taking him to concert stages, casino theaters and performing arts centers across the country. Terry's show is the perfect combination of comedy and singing, hilarious parodies, his once in a lifetime ventriloquism skills, featuring his cast of puppet characters "singing" classic and modern rock, pop, soul and country.

And he does all that without moving his lips.
