

Solomon's Castle is a whimsical wonderland in the Florida wilderness, created by the sculptor Howard Solomon from recycled materials. Solomon's talent is making beautiful things out of items discarded by modern society. The castle nearly 12,000 square feet, is not only home to Howard's family, but it is also home to his workshop, galleries, exhibition rooms.

We will have a guided CASTLE TOUR, followed by HOWARD'S ENCORE TOUR
This Gallery Represents the Last 10 Years of Howard's Work
