TUES – MAR 16

TAMPA BAY HISTORY CENTER

From the earliest days of filmmaking, Florida has played a vital role in American cinema. This exhibit features a dynamic collection of original posters and lobby cards from the 1920s to today, highlighting the bold promotional art that captured audiences' imaginations. Together, these pieces celebrate Florida's enduring legacy as a place of cinematic ambition, creativity, and adventure.

This is a self-guided tour – time to explore on your own

Lunch (OYO) after tour at the Columbia Café Riverwalk.
